Certificate of Quality

Re: Charitable Contribution of Gift-in-Kind Donations

I, Stephen Oesterheld, Warehouse & Logistics Coordinator for World Help, hereby certify that the clothing supplied in this shipment has been sourced, inspected, sorted, packed, and shipped in accordance with the quality and specifications established by industry standards.

I further certify that all clothing contained in this shipment consists of new, unused garments procured from retail overstock, excess inventory, and/or manufacturer surplus. No used, worn, damaged, or previously owned clothing has been included in this shipment.

Each garment has undergone a quality inspection to verify that it is clean, in new condition, and suitable for distribution. Original retail packaging, tags, hangers, and other unnecessary packaging materials may have been removed solely to reduce shipping volume and eliminate excess waste in the destination country. The removal of packaging does not affect the new condition or quality of the garments.

To the best of my knowledge, this shipment meets the stated quality standards and has been prepared for international shipment and humanitarian distribution.
